

Missouri Press
Foundation
E. L. STEELE / W. A. BRAY
SCHOLARSHIPS

$2,500 Grants for the Study of Community Newspapering at the University of Missouri School of Journalism

Mail to: Missouri Press Foundation, 802 Locust Street, Columbia, MO 65201

Or, Fax to: 573-874-5894 Application Deadline: May 1

Name _____ Date of Birth _____
Last First Middle Initial

Home Address _____

City/State/Zip _____ Telephone _____

School Address _____

City/State/Zip _____ Telephone _____

Academic Major _____

College/university activities in which you have participated:

Leadership roles in college:

Honors or special recognition you have received in college:

What are your immediate and long-range career plans?

Student's Signature _____ Date _____

Student Essay

The Applicant must write a brief essay (200 words maximum) on the topic: "Community Newspapers Play an Important Role in Missouri." The essay should be attached to this application.

Letters of Recommendation

Two letters of recommendation on behalf of the student should be attached to this application.

Faculty Recommendation

To the faculty members or administer recommending this student: Please state briefly why you recommend this student for this scholarship. You may evaluate the following: academic performance, professional potential, special circumstances of which you are aware. (You may write your recommendation on a separate sheet and attach it if necessary.)

Faculty Member's Signature _____ Date_____

Faulty Member's Printed Name:

Academic Verification

Applicant's current grade point average:

Expected graduation date:

Colleges/Universities attended and years enrolled:

What classes has the Applicant completed and/or plans to complete that demonstrate intent to work in the field of community newspapers?

Printed Name of School Official Providing Verification:

School Official's Signature_____ Date_____

Who is eligible to apply: undergraduate students enrolled in the School of Journalism at the University of Missouri, and who are enrolled in courses directed toward a career in the newspaper industry such as in newspaper management, reporting, editing, circulation and advertising. The selection of said scholarship recipients shall be based on financial need, with consideration of academic achievement and commitment to begin a career working for a newspaper.