State law requires government entities at all levels, from water districts to city councils and school boards, to place notices of many of their activities in a legal newspaper. This is a legal newspaper. I subscribe to it, and I read it.

I read legal notices to find out when those people will meet, what rules and laws they're talking about and when I can offer my two cents worth.

Would a similar notice posted somewhere on the internet alert me to what's going on around here?

The answer to that is obvious.
No, it would not.
