

Public Notices in this newspaper help me participate in my community.

State law requires government entities at all levels, from water districts to city councils and school boards, to place notices of many of their activities in a legal newspaper. This is a legal newspaper. I subscribe to it, and I read it.

I read legal notices to find out when those people will meet, what rules and laws they're talking about and when I can offer my two cents worth.

Would a similar notice posted somewhere on the internet alert me to what's going on around here?

The answer to that is obvious.
No, it would not.
