My experience with the Record over the past four years, and especially during my work this past summer, has proven the idea that a small news outlet can only be "small" to be completely untrue. ...

The Warren County Record represents a unique bite of life. Here, lives are more intertwined and stories are more meaningful. I have enjoyed working at the Record in large part because I feel like the news I report has a true impact on our readers' lives.

~ MADELEINE SUTHERLAND • WARREN COUNTY RECORD

Each summer, the Missouri Press Foundation supports as many as 10 journalism students as they work at Missouri newspapers. Student interns work as reporters, editors, photographers, designers, advertising representatives or website editors/reporters. In some cases they wear many hats throughout their four-, six- or eight-week internship. They gain hands-on experience, they gain a real sense about what working in the industry is like, and they get an experienced mentor.

The Missouri Press Foundation offers each newspaper as much as $1,000 to pay their summer interns. If we are able to fully fund the program, we will offer this opportunity to 10 deserving students this summer. But we have to reach our funding goal to make this happen. If you haven't already made a donation, please consider donating now. Supporting our bright students now, will ensure a bright future for Missouri newspapers.

Your donation today to the summer internship program will foster talented, aspiring journalists and ensure the future of Missouri Newspapers.
