Missouri Press Association Application

802 Locust | Columbia, MO 65201 | Phone 573-449-4167

Thank you for your interest to join Missouri Press Association as an Associate Member.

ASSOCIATE members include former publishers of a newspaper which held active membership in MPA, any employee of a newspaper or writer thereof, any person serving in an information capacity with any unit of government, university or college, journalism educators, elected officials and their staff, freelance public relations representatives, and other individuals.

They are encouraged to join the Missouri Press Association. Their contributions through the years has been valuable and the contacts help both publishers and Associate members. Associate members may not hold elective office in MPA.

MPA welcomes your application to become an Associate member. You will receive the monthly Missouri Press News magazine with your membership.

Upon approval, your email will be added to the MO Press News Magazine distribution and the MPA email distribution lists.

All applications are subject to approval by the MPA Board of Directors.
