

(1953- )

Harold David (Dave) Berry

President, Missouri Press Association, 2003; President, Ozark Press Association, 1990; President, Missouri Advertising Managers' Association, 1996; former Regional Director of the National Newspaper Association. Berry is vice president of Neighbor News of Missouri and is publisher of the Bolivar Herald- Free Press and stockholder of multiple titles and printing plants in southwest Missouri, Arkansas and Oklahoma. Native of Aurora and a 1975 graduate of Southwest Missouri State University where he edited the student newspaper for two years and successfully challenged administration censorship. Worked for the Aurora Advertiser and the Mt. Vernon Lawrence Co. Record. Became the Herald-Free Press editor in 1977; named publisher in 1987. Executive vice president of Sterling Media Ltd., 1989-1999. Longtime civic involvement with the local Chamber of Commerce, Rotary Club, Optimist Club, YMCA, Hospital Board. Served on the Bolivar Board of Aldermen. Regional Media Hall of Fame inductee, 2009. He taught himself to be the consummate community newspaperman and has guided some of the better, award-winning community weekly newspapers of middle America.